ANNUAL ADMINISTRATIVE REPORT OF SOCIAL WELFARE DEPARTMENT FOR THE YEAR 2009-2010

I. FUNCTIONS AND OBJECTIVES

The Social Welfare as an organised body had started in the State with the establishment of a separate Directorate in 1974. The schemes and programmes implemented by the Department are for the benefit of the weaker sections of the society irrespective of caste, creed or religion. The Social Welfare programmes are implemented with the active co-operation of the Non-Governmental organisations. Promotion of voluntary effort, therefore, has been a key instrument for the development of welfare services in Meghalaya. Efforts are also made to integrate welfare programmes with the economic development programmes in order to improve the economic status of the community.

Besides, continuing existing schemes for the welfare of children, women, disabled and the aged in the state that have been implemented right from the beginning, more emphasis are also given towards preventive measures of social problems like drug addiction, alcoholism, juvenile delinquency, rehabilitation of the disabled and others.

3. Nutrition Surveillance System (NSS)

Considering the high incidence of child malnutrition in the country, Govt. of India under the aegis of the Department of Women and Child Development adopted the National Nutrition Policy in 1993 (NNP) to advocate a multi sectoral strategy for combating the problems of malnutrition. One of the important recommendations of the NNP is to establish Nutrition Surveillance System in the country as a mechanism to reduce malnutrition. A project on "Development of Nutrition Surveillance System" was conducted by the Food and Nutrition Board in collaboration with National Institute of Nutrition (NIN) Hyderabad. The outcome of the project demonstrated that Nutrition Surveillance can be undertaken utilizing the ICDS infrastructure with improved training, supervision and monitoring. The project was based on triple AAA approach i.e., Assessment, Analysis and Action at different levels.

The project is implemented through National Institute of Nutrition (NIN) Hyderabad in collaborative exercise between Department of Women and Child Development, NIN and the State Government. The project involves training/reviewing/monitoring on the implementation of ICDS Programme at the district level and project levels and also involving anganwadi workers. During 2009-10, an amount of Rs.7.50 lakhs is provided to meet the necessary expenditure under the scheme but Govt. of India has not released any fund and the expenditure of Rs.2.78 lakhs had been met from the fund under ICDS.

4. Kishori Shakti Yojana – KSY (Adolescent Girls Scheme)

The Kishori Shakti Yojana (KSY) is implemented in the 39 ICDS Projects. Under the scheme training is conducted to the girls of the age 11-15 year in nutrition, health care, home management, literacy etc. and provided supplementary nutrition. During 2009-10, an amount of Rs.21.45 lakhs had been received from Govt. of India and the expenditure is Rs.22.00 lakhs. The 2nd instalment for an amount of Rs.21.45 lakhs was received after the lapse of financial year 2009-10.

5. Balika Samridhhi Yojana (BSY)

Balika Samridhhi Yojana (BSY) was introduced during 1997-98 and was implemented in the State covering 12357 beneficiaries. The scheme aims at giving prime importance to a girl child to ensure population stabilisation with gender equity and sustain socio economic development. Under the scheme – I a sum of Rs.500/- as a one time post delivery grant is given to the mother bearing a girl child. The target group cover girl children born on or after 15th August 1997 in families Below Poverty Line (BPL) Under the scheme – II a scholarship is given to a beneficiary of scheme – I above, who have started attending school, the rate is Rs.300/- per child per year.

The benefit of (BSY) is restricted to two girl child. The BSY is part of the long term strategy to change social attitude and behavioural practices towards the girl child. During 2009-10, no fund was released by Govt. of India.

6. Integrated Women's Empowerment Programme (IWEP)

Integrated Women Empowerment Programme is implementing in the 5 (five) Community and Rural Development Blocks viz; Betasing, Mawshynrut, Resubelpara, Umling and Mylliem by Social Welfare as the Nodal Department.

The objectives of the scheme is establishment of self reliant women's self help groups (SHGs) creation of confidence and awareness among members of self help groups, regarding women's status, health, nutrition, education, sanitation and hygiene, legal rights, economic and political issues, strengthening and institutionalizing the savings habit in rural women and their control over economic resources, improving access of women to micro credit, involvement of women in local level planning and convergence of services for DWCD and other Departments.

7. Implementation of Children Act, Establishment of Juvenile Guidance Centre

The Department had set up three Homes for reception of children in conflict with law at Shillong and Tura. Under the Juvenile Justice Care and Protection of Children Act, 2000 there should be separate Home for the delinquent juvenile by the name of Observation cum Special Home and a Home for the neglected children known as Children's Home. These Homes can be run either by the Government or NGOs with financial assistance 50:50 basis between the Central and State Government. As per the Act there should be a Shelter Homes for children in urgent need and the Department had set up one home at Shillong for immediate shelter of children in urgent need.

The problem of street and neglected children is coming up and accordingly the Department has proposed to set up one Children's Home in Shillong under section 34 of the above Act during 2008-09 for the reception and rehabilitation of child in need of care and protection pending enquiry report if any and subsequently for their care, treatment, education training development and rehabilitation separately for boys and girls with 25 inmates and also to set up one more Shelter Home for the children in the urgent need of care and protection such as destitute, street children and runaway children, requiring immediate shelter such as victim of domestic violence and trafficking etc.

Sharing expenditure is on 50:50 basis between the centre and the State. Central Share depends on the amount released by Govt. of India, and it is very limited as indicated.
